COMMUNITY CHURCH

May 1 & 2, 2010 | "Searching for Someone to Listen" | Speaker: Scott Nickell

What's happening at flatirons?

Information for all events and programs is available at the Information Center or Children's Ministry Kiosk in the Lobby or online at flatironschurch.com

The Children's Team is looking for enthusiastic volunteers to serve at the 6:30pm service on Saturday and 11:55am service on Sunday. Come to the Children's kiosk in the lobby to learn how to jump on board.

Infant & Child Dedication | for anyone interested in having their child dedicated | Sunday, June 6 | 1:00-3:00pm | Heritage Park in Louisville | More info at flatironschurch.com/parents

Circle of Friends | for children with disabilities | Every Saturday 6:30pm service | If you are the parent of a child with disabilities and want them to be paired with a Friend, please email circleoffriends@flatironschurch.com so we can provide a trained volunteer to help facilitate the best possible experience for your child.

Babies in the Auditorium | Whether crying of hunger or giggling for joy, your baby is capable of creating quite the commotion. Please let our Children's Ministry give you—and those sitting around you—a chance to enjoy the service without distraction. We also offer a Cry Room and the Lobby if your child chooses to "express themselves" during the service. Thank you for your help in creating an excellent environment.

Revolution Summer Camp | for Current 8th to 12th Graders | Monday, July 5 to Saturday, July 10 | Revolution is headed to Durango, CO for a week of summer camp that will melt your face off! | Cost is $450 | Registration packets available Tuesday's at Rev. More info at flatironschurch.com/revolution

C2 Summer Camp | for Current 6th & 7th Graders | Saturday, July 24 to Friday, July 30 | Come to the ultimate summer camp adventure with C2 at the National Youth Roundup campground in Sedalia! | Cost is $200 | Registration packets available Wednesday's at C2. More info at flatironschurch.com/c2

Do you want to meet new people?

People often ask what the best way is to get to know people here at flatirons! Stop by the Info Center in the Lobby for more information about volunteering or check out our Community Groups resource online at flatironschurch.com/flatironslist

Questions?

If after listening to today's service you have questions or just need to talk with someone, please come down to either side of the stage where there are people who would love to talk and pray with you.

Want to be in the know?

For age-specific events or programs, please stop by the Information Center in the Lobby or visit us online at flatironschurch.com. Our website is a great place to find detailed information about upcoming events, opportunities, and support along with tools to help you build a deeper relationship with Christ and with new friends.

What you are about to experience

At flatirons we teach Biblical truths to help people find a better way to do life with Jesus Christ. Wherever you are in your spiritual journey, our desire is for you to experience the love God has for you.

Did you come with kids? | The room you have entered is designed for adults (Middle School and older). Children, 4th grade and younger, will be much more comfortable in our Children's Ministry which is designed just for them! There, your child will engage in age-appropriate teaching, games, music and more. You can check your child in for a Children's Ministry classroom at any of the touchscreen computers located in the Lobby. ReMix, designed specifically for 5th graders, meets at the Student Center each weekend on Saturday at 5:00pm and Sunday at 10:30am. If needed, there is an area in the Lobby for parents with children 12 months and younger. If you have further questions, please stop by the Children's Ministry Kiosk in the Lobby today.

Volume | If you find the music too loud, please visit the Information Center in the Lobby for ear plugs. Ear plugs are also available at the Auditorium doors.

Offering | Jesus taught that one of the ways we worship God is by giving our lives away... our time... our talent... and our treasure. Each week we receive an offering. Every dollar given here at flatirons goes directly to fund our mission to bring the awesome love of Christ to those in our community and our world. Those of us who consider flatirons our church home give with a generous and joyful heart to support this mission and the ministries of the church. Offering buckets are available at auditorium doors at the conclusion of each service.

Communion | For nearly 2000 years, followers of Jesus have used bread and wine/juice as symbols to remember that Jesus gave his own body and blood to pay for all of our mistakes and shortcomings. At flatirons, we frequently participate in communion together. On weekends that communion is not offered as part of our service, communion bread and wine (juice) may be found on tables at the rear of the auditorium. You are welcome to visit one of these tables anytime during today's service.

Prayer Requests | Prayer request cards are located at the communion tables. The flatirons Prayer Team would love to pray for your request or you can submit a request online at flatironschurch.com

BRiX | Building Relationships in Christ. For updates, resources, and info regarding our new building, visit the Info Center in the Lobby or check out flatironschurch.com/brix

Animals in Auditorium | We welcome certified service animals into our facility. However, we ask that you keep all other pets at home.

Distractions | To allow you and those around you to be more fully engaged in today's service, please turn off or mute all cell phones, pagers and beepers. Please use the Lobby area for any necessary conversations.

Sign Language Interpretation | Available at the front left section of the Auditorium at the Saturday 5:00pm service and Sunday 9:00am service. Interpreters are also available for most events and workshops upon request. Contact signlanguage@flatironschurch.com

All my life

This Weekend

May 1 & 2, 2010 | "Searching for Someone to Listen" | Speaker: Scott Nickell

All my life, I've been searching for some really big answers to some really big questions, like Who am I...really? Why am I here? How much am I worth? What's the point of my life? How does God fit into my life? If I want God in my life, why do I need Jesus? Is it even important that I search for answers? Those are great questions. Here's one more...Would the rest of my life be different if I finally discovered the answers to the questions that I've been trying to figure out All My Life?

Scripture

¹⁸ The LORD is close to the brokenhearted
and saves those who are crushed in spirit.

Psalms 34:18 (New International Version) Page 390

⁸ Trust in him at all times, O people;
pour out your hearts to him,
for God is our refuge.

Psalms 62:8 (New International Version) Page 402

¹ Have mercy on me, O God, have mercy on me,
for in you my soul takes refuge.
I will take refuge in the shadow of your wings
until the disaster has passed.

² I cry out to God Most High,
to God, who fulfills {his purpose} for me.

³ He sends from heaven and saves me,
rebuking those who hotly pursue me;
God sends his love and his faithfulness.

⁴ I am in the midst of lions;
I lie among ravenous beasts—
men whose teeth are spears and arrows,
whose tongues are sharp swords.

⁵ Be exalted, O God, above the heavens;
let your glory be over all the earth.

Scripture (cont.)

⁶ They spread a net for my feet—
I was bowed down in distress.
They dug a pit in my path—
but they have fallen into it themselves.

⁷ My heart is steadfast, O God,
my heart is steadfast;
I will sing and make music.

⁸ Awake, my soul!
Awake, harp and lyre!
I will awaken the dawn.

⁹ I will praise you, O Lord, among the nations;
I will sing of you among the peoples.

¹⁰ For great is your love, reaching to the heavens;
your faithfulness reaches to the skies.

¹¹ Be exalted, O God, above the heavens;
let your glory be over all the earth.

Psalms 57:1-11 (New International Version) Page 400
