Want to be in the know?

For age-specific events or programs, please stop by the Information Center in the Lobby or visit us online at flatironschurch.com. Our website is a great place to find detailed information about upcoming events, opportunities, and support along with tools to help you build a deeper relationship with Christ and with new friends.

What you are about to experience

At flatirons we teach Biblical truths to help people find a better way to do life with Jesus Christ. Wherever you are in your spiritual journey, our desire is for you to experience the love God has for you.

Did you come with kids? | The room you have entered is designed for adults (Middle School and older). Children, 4th grade and younger, will be much more comfortable in our Children's Ministry which is designed just for them! There, your child will engage in age-appropriate teaching, games, music and more. You can check your child in for a Children's Ministry classroom at any of the touchscreen computers located in the Lobby. If needed, there is an area in the Lobby for parents with children 12 months and younger. If you have further questions, please stop by the Children's Ministry Kiosk in the Lobby today.

Volume | If you find the music too loud, please visit the Information Center in the Lobby for ear plugs. Ear plugs are also available at the Auditorium doors.

Offering | Jesus taught that one of the ways we worship God is by giving our lives away... our time... our talent... and our treasure. Each week we receive an offering. Every dollar given here at flatirons goes directly to fund our mission to bring the awesome love of Christ to those in our community and our world. Those of us who consider flatirons our church home give with a generous and joyful heart to support this mission and the ministries of the church. Offering buckets are available at auditorium doors at the conclusion of each service.

Communion | For nearly 2000 years, followers of Jesus have used bread and wine/juice as symbols to remember that Jesus gave his own body and blood to pay for all of our mistakes and shortcomings. At flatirons, we frequently participate in communion together. On weekends that communion is not offered as part of our service, communion bread and wine (juice) may be found on tables at the rear of the auditorium. You are welcome to visit one of these tables anytime during today's service.

Prayer Requests | Prayer request cards are located at the communion tables. The flatirons Prayer Team would love to pray for your request or you can submit a request online at flatironschurch.com

BRiX | Building Relationships in Christ. For updates, resources, and info regarding our new building, visit the Info Center in the Lobby or check out flatironschurch.com/brix

Animals in Auditorium | We welcome certified service animals into our facility. However, we ask that you keep all other pets at home.

Distractions | To allow you and those around you to be more fully engaged in today's service, please turn off or mute all cell phones. Please use the Lobby area for any necessary conversations.

Sign Language Interpretation | Available at the front left section of the Auditorium at the Saturday 5:00pm service and Sunday 9:00am service. Interpreters are also available for most events and workshops upon request. Contact signlanguage@flatironschurch.com

This Weekend

August 21 & 22, 2010 | "Pay Attention" | Speaker: Jim Burgen

Jesus taught over and over that faith which leads to a better life is not simply a matter of believing the right set of religious facts or information. Life changing faith is about taking what you believe to be true about life and about God and APPLYING it to your daily circumstances. In this series, we are going to be looking at several of those key truths that, when applied, can actually make a difference in our lives.

Scripture

<sup>1</sup> My son, pay attention to my wisdom,
listen well to my words of insight,

<sup>2</sup> that you may maintain discretion
and your lips may preserve knowledge.

Proverbs 5:1-2 (New International Version) Page 443

<sup>18</sup> Flee from sexual immorality. All other sins a man commits are outside his body, but he who sins sexually sins against his own body.

1 Corinthians 6:18 (New International Version) Page 794

<sup>16</sup> Should your springs overflow in the streets, your streams of water in the public squares? <sup>17</sup> Let them be yours alone, never to be shared with strangers. <sup>18</sup> May your fountain be blessed, and may you rejoice in the wife of your youth. <sup>19</sup> A loving doe, a graceful deer—may her breasts satisfy you always, may you ever be captivated by her love. <sup>20</sup> Why be captivated, my son, by an adulteress? Why embrace the bosom of another man's wife? <sup>21</sup> For a man's ways are in full view of the LORD, and he examines all his paths.

Proverbs 5:15-21 (New International Version) Page 444

<sup>7</sup> Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows.

Galatians 6:7 (New International Version) Page 810

<sup>16</sup> Let us then approach the throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.

Hebrews 4:16 (New International Version) Page 830

<sup>13</sup> No temptation has seized you except what is common to man. And God is faithful; he will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear. But when you are tempted, he will also provide a way out so that you can stand up under it.

1 Corinthians 10:13 (New International Version) Page 796

<sup>1</sup> What shall we say, then? Shall we go on sinning so that grace may increase?

Romans 6:1 (New International Version) Page 784
