Weekend Discussion Questions
August 9-10, 2008

Community:

1. If you could choose any sporting event to go to with a group of friends which would you choose?
2. Who is your favorite athlete?
3. What's your favorite Olympic event?

Core:

1. READ Luke 15 together as a group. Why do you think Jesus tells three stories in this chapter?
2. Do you think all three stories illustrate the same point or are there some variances?
3. Which is your favorite story of the three? Why?
4. In the story of the lost son, which son do you identify with?
5. What event does it seem God finds worth celebrating?
6. Scott asked, "Why do religious people fear a good party?" Do you agree or disagree?
7. What stands out to you in the story of the lost son?
8. What did you think the word prodigal meant before this weekend?
9. How does it affect your perspective on the story to know that the definition of prodigal is "lavish and excessive"?
10. Scott said, "The lavishness of God's love far surpasses the excessiveness of your sin". Do you believe that?
11. Have you ever been around an "older brother"?
12. Have you ever been an "older brother"?
13. What did you learn about God this weekend?

Challenge:

Scott talked about repenting/turning away from the things that have been stealing your life and causing you pain and turning to God. What would that look like in your life?
