

Cannonball – Getting in Line

Weekend Discussion Questions

May 29-30, 2010

Community:

1. What was it like for you the first time you jumped off the high dive into a pool?
2. What is the scariest step of faith that you have taken that you were glad about afterward?

Core:

1. How does doing a cannonball into a pool or jumping off the high dive paint a picture of the kind of life Jesus wants us to live?
2. Read Mark 12:29-31. Why does the word “all” appear so often and what is Jesus trying to say?
3. If the most important thing is to live an “all in” life of love; what does that look like, how do you do it and what are the obstacles along the way?
4. Do you think that we tend to try and reduce risk too much these days and lose something (i.e. the rush of joy that comes from taking risks) in the process?
5. What does it look like to “keep in step with the Spirit”? Galatians 5:25
6. Scott said that in life you have to let go of some things to take hold of something better. Can you think of an example?
7. Read Genesis 12:1-20 and make some observations about Abram’s attempts to live “all in” and in contrast to reduce risk.
8. Has there been a time when you took steps to do what God was telling you, but then took matters into your own hands when circumstances became difficult?
9. Reflect on some of the major decisions in your life. Have you made them based on fear or love?
10. Where are you living right now? Bethel (House of God) or Ai (place of ruin)?

Challenge:

1. Is there something you are hanging on to that you need to let go of in the hope of finding something better?
2. What is one step you can take this week to live “all in” and step out in faith and trust God even more?
