

Weekend Discussion Questions
Who Cares? (Week 2): My Heartbeat

1. What cultural examples (shows, games, magazines) can you think of that point to our selfishness?
2. In what ways do you see our culture as one that plays monopoly?
3. Read Luke 12:13-21 and Leviticus 19:9-10. Why do you think God refers to this rich man as a fool?
4. How do you see these two scriptures being interconnected in the minds of Jesus' audience?
5. Go to globalrichlist.com and see where you rank in the world. Are you surprised at where you fall in regards to rich or poor?
6. If God's heartbeat is to help the helpless, how would you describe your heart beat?
7. How does what you say you care about show up in your actions? For good or for bad?
8. If you were to ask yourself the question "why do I have so much" on a daily basis how would that change your actions?
9. What stuff do you have that other people need?
10. What little expenses, that add up to a lot can you cut back on? What could you give the edge of your financial field toward?
11. What could you give the edge of your time field toward?
12. What is the most challenging part of your life to find "margin" in right now? Money, time, stuff?
13. Read James 1:27. What opportunities do you have to literally "go visit" the helpless?
14. What do you want to define who you are while you are here on this earth?